

Autumn Half Term Holiday Poppy Art Project

Thank you to everyone who completed the British Legion and St Luke's Church Poppy Art Project for homework over half term.

Your stunning poppies have all been collected by a member of St Luke's Church and will now be added to their display on the grounds of the bombed out church, alongside poppies from other schools in Liverpool.

I am certain that they will all contribute to what will be a beautiful and thought provoking display of remembrance to mark this years Remembrance Sunday.

Here are some photos of all you poppies together. Can you spot yours?

A Prayer for Remembrance

Ever-living God,
We remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war
into the peace of your presence;
may that same peace calm our fears,
bring justice to all peoples
and establish harmony among the nations,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

In Flanders Fields

poem by Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae, 3 May 1915

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie,
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high;
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.
